

I do not support the proposed FCC rule that will expand the number of broadcast stations/options that one company can hold. It does not serve the public, diversity or local needs. In short because such an action threatens information access, it threatens democracy and such an action should not happen without more public debate.

thank you. Molly Fleming